Antelope Valley Youth and Family Services is a project initiated in 1989 through a grant from the United Way, Inc. Discretionary Fund Distribution Committee. United Way-Antelope Valley Region provides continued funding for the program.

Antelope Valley Youth & Family Services disclaims any liability to any person, organization or agency for any loss or damage caused by omission or errors in the 2009 Red Book, whether such omissions result from accident or neglect, or any other cause. All names, addresses, descriptions services and fees are subject to change. We earnestly request that any inaccuracy be brought to our attention. A listing in the directory does not constitute an endorsement or certification of a program's services, nor is any exclusion intentional.

2009 Edition

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This Directory was compiled as a community effort and is dedicated to the youth, families, and adults in the Antelope Valley.

Antelope Valley Youth and Family Services would like to thank all those volunteers and organizations that made this directory possible. Our thanks to:

The Health Planning Council and the Antelope Valley Union High School District for providing the previous Human Services Directory that served as a foundation for the first Red Book.

Each and every agency and individual who has provided input.

Information for this directory has been widely sought; however, it is not inclusive of all services available in the Antelope Valley. In order to keep this directory current and useful, Antelope Valley Youth and Family Services needs your help. If you find an existing agency, which is not listed, an agency listed inaccurately, or an agency listed which no longer exists, please notify us.

Antelope Valley Youth and Family Services
