WELCOME BACK:

Welcome back Desert View Families. We hope you had an enjoyable holiday season!

Written By: Mrs. Goffigan, 4th Grade Teacher at Desert View Elementary School

With a long three week break coming to an end and testing season on the horizon, we want to make sure your child is ready to tackle the school days ahead. To successfully do this, we must ensure that students are committed to meeting the expectations here at Desert View. Teachers and staff members are working diligently, reminding/redirecting, teaching and positively reinforcing our three expectations: Be Respectful, Be Responsible and Be safe.

Our school uses PBIS so we can: Acknowledge appropriate behaviors, develop ways to prevent inappropriate behavior, teach school-wide and classroom expectations and use data to make decisions. You can help us with this task by asking your student what they did today to be respectful, responsible or safe. Praise them for making responsible decisions. If an inappropriate behavior takes place, ask your child what they could do differently next time to be respectful, responsible or safe.

A "Blizzard of Kindness" is scheduled to reach Desert View the last week of January. Snowflakes will be falling and both staff and students are encouraged to grab one and write a kind note to another DV Star. Keep calm and write on!

DATA TO CELEBRATE:

According to our data, December had a decrease in Office Referrals (ODR's) from November to December for the 15 days we had been in school for each month. We decreased our December ODR's by 22%!

The following students have been recognized by a staff member who acknowledged them for meeting one or more of our behavior expectations at Desert View: Jessie S. (Mr. Sampson), Pickett K.
